Sen. Goschka makes 100 percent of roll-call votes

LANSING — Sen. Mike Goschka, R-Brant, voted in all 707 Senate roll-call votes in 2003, the Senate announced today.

“I’m proud to be the voice of Saginaw and Gratiot counties in the Senate,” Goschka said. “Whether it was for bills dealing with the state’s budget or trying to make Michigan globally competitive, I was there at every vote, adding the peoples’ voice and working hard to reflect the goals and values of my district.”

Goschka chairs the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Higher Education, and serves on standing Committees on Transportation and Local, Urban & State Affairs. He also serves as a member of the Legislative Retirement Board of Trustees.
